

Good morning to you all,

My body clock won out this morning & having turned the clocks back an hour to begin British Summer Time last night, when the alarm went off at 7am this morning I got up & switched it off & went back to bed to wake up again exactly an hour later!

Image 1: We have just completed the first week of the current paper collection, a Trio of Flowers, so a way to go with that yet.

Image 2: The penultimate sheet from these card kits now, & I plan on uploading the final one in the coming week too.

Image 3: Another new design to add to the Just Words page with this sheet of decorative greeting plaques, I kept the colour scheme bright & fresh but with lots of colours to remind us all that spring really is underway!

Images 4 & 5: A little duo I created using Kate Greenaway images, so a decoupage topper with additional mini images & paper 'ribbon', accompanied by a full sheet backing paper that matches.

Image 6: A rather pretty little oval decoupage now of a lady carrying a bunch of flowers & I thought I would add a shaped panel behind the main image just to give it a bit more of a lift when you use it on your project. I have also included some extra mini images for you to either use elsewhere on the project, or perhaps on another one.

Image 7: Another celebration of springtime now with this deep decoupage topper sheet; with so many layers you may want to split the set over two projects, particularly if you are planning on sending them through the post. This is the first of a quartet of sheets if you want to collect them all.

Image 8: This final card kit from the rose file completes the collection of fourteen, no idea why fourteen to be honest, it just panned out that way?

Images 9 & 10: A second duo for the coming week is this one that I called 'Little Bo Peep' & was the image in the resource file that made me realise that some had been taken from old story books for kids!

Anyhow, another decoupage sheet, which gets pretty intricate so you may need your craft knife to hand, with a couple of mini images as well as the accompanying full sheet backing paper.

Image 11: This is one of a trio of sheets that I did in different colour ways, this one is autumn & I will use it as the bonus sheet for this morning, & then I will post the other two direct to page.

Happy Birthday!	Just because...	Well Done!	You're so very kind
